

OCHOCO NATIONAL FOREST
OREGON

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS it appears that portions of the Deschutes and Malheur National Forests, in the State of Oregon, should constitute the Ochoco National Forest;

Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM H. TAFT, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by the Act of Congress approved June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An Act Making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and for other purposes," do proclaim that on and after July first, nineteen hundred and eleven, the boundaries of the Ochoco National Forest shall be as shown on the diagram forming a part hereof.

This proclamation shall not prevent the settlement and entry of any lands heretofore opened to settlement and entry under the Act of Congress approved June eleventh, nineteen hundred and six, entitled "An Act To provide for the entry of Agricultural lands within forest reserves."

It is not intended by this proclamation to reserve any land not heretofore embraced in a National Forest, nor to release any land from reservation. The lands eliminated from the Deschutes National Forest as shown on the attached diagram are withdrawn for classification under the Act of June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten (36 Stat., 847), as provided in the proclamation effective July first, nineteen hundred and eleven, changing the boundaries of said National Forest.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[SEAL.] DONE at the City of Washington this thirtieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-fifth.

WM H TAFT

By the President:
HUNTINGTON WILSON
Acting Secretary of State.
